

Alabama Art Education Association
Louise B. Marsh Scholarship
FIRST YEAR TEACHER APPLICATION

To attend the Alabama Art Educators' Fall Conference
November 12-13 at Spring Hill College in Mobile, AL

(Please Type or Print)

Name

School System

Public _____

Private _____

Elementary _____ Middle School _____

Junior High _____

High School _____

Mailing Address

Telephone

EMAIL

Must be a current Member of NAEA (National Art Education) and/or AAEA (Alabama Art Education Association) Yes _____ Member # _____

School Assignments: (grades you teach, classes, your specialty area, committees, sponsor of what clubs or extra-curricular activities, how long have you taught...)

Community or Volunteer Activities (In descending order of importance.)

(List community activities in which applicant participated)

In what ways have you advocated for the value of art and arts education in your (or your school's) own community?

List any pertinent awards you have received (related to art, education, or art education):

What has/have been the most difficult things you have faced in these first 3 months of handling your own classroom?

What has been your greatest sense of accomplishment so far with regard to being an art educator?

State at least one way that you would like to have an affect on art education in the lives of students in the state of Alabama:

Please include one letter of reference from a current supervisor. You may instruct them to email the reference letter directly to AAEA Scholarship Chair, Terrence Brown at aaeascholarship@gmail.com. The reference is due on the same date as the application and the subject line of the email should have your name and AAEA Louise B. March Scholarship in the subject line.

Please return this form by September 15th, 2021 to: Terrence Brown

This form may be found online: www.aaeaonline.org and emailed to aaeascholarship@gmail.com

You may use the back of this form if necessary or a second sheet. Scholarship applicants will be notified by email